

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

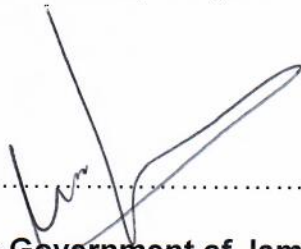

1. Delegations representing the Governments of Jamaica and the Dominican Republic met in Nairobi, Kenya on the 11th of December 2018 to conclude discussions on the development of an Air Services Agreement between their countries. The discussions were held in a friendly and constructive atmosphere, with both sides making their points in a frank and co-operative manner and expressing the hope that the development of an ASA would become the basis for the establishment of air services between and beyond Jamaica and the Dominican Republic. A list of the two delegations is attached at Annex A.
